

agrees. Flynn was n and was uncon- lled him on board cial respiration. He ly being taken from Balfe.

a fourteen centre nd, in his opinion, Monday was en- e for such a boat y, Crosshaven, said ial respiration, but il. There were no dy of any blows. o asphyxia due to rdict in accordance cal evidence of from asphyxia due oroper commended Mr. Balfe for their erous business," he n a day like Mon- hich was evidently unfortunately, people nces." pressed their sym- of-kin.

Death

E KILBRITTAIN RICT

red at the Convent e's of the Isle, Cork, a prolonged illness are O'Leary.

arren, Kilbrittain, n the forty-ninth igious profession. to the poor at the for the greater part e. She was a niece Rev. Canon O'Leary, d Paul's, Cork, and late Very Rev. M. ull.

J. Scannell, D.D., f Cork, presided at m Mass, which was Convent on Monday F. McCarthy, Chap- ital; deacon, Rev. onaventure's; sub- rgan, M.S.C., Sacred v. C. Lynch, Chap- of the Isle, was nies.

e: Rev. A. Murphy- hurch of the Im- tion, The Lough, bett, C.C., St. Pat- lbert, M.S.C.; Rev. and Rev. E. Fitz- Bessboro.

gy Present

resent included:—

Feast of St. Gubnait—Many people from the district travelled to Bally- vourney on Sunday last, the Feast of St. Gubnait, and performed the rounds at the ruins of the ancient Abbey which was founded there by the saint.

For U.S.A. and Canada—The ex- dus of people from this district to foreign lands still continues. Mr. Timothy Kearney of Coolroe West, Inchigeela, left Cove recently for Chicago, U.S.A. On Sunday next Mr. Michael Riordan and Mr. Tim- othy Riordan, both of Gortnalour, Inchigeela, will sail for British Col- umbia where they are taking up employment.

Ballingeary College

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR COMING SESSION

At a meeting of the Committee of Colaiste na Mumhan, Beal-Atha-an- Ghaorhaidh the officers of the Com- mittee for the coming year were elected.

The outgoing Secretary Seamus O Seaghda, intimated that he was not seeking election.

Sean O Criodain, O.S., Rathpeacon, was elected Secretary.

Aindrias O Scannail, O.S., Clon- dulane, Fermoy, was elected Chair- man for the ensuing year.

Dissatisfaction was expressed at the poor attendance at the course in recent years during the month of August.

It was the unanimous wish of the Committee to do everything possible to make the August course the suc- cess that it used to be in byegone years. It was stated that with this end in view the services of outstar- ing Gaelic profession were being acquired for the coming session. A local Committee had been appointed to see that suitable accommodation was made available to students.

It was decided to hold Irish courses for the following classes:— (a) Child- ren from twelve to fifteen years; (b) Students of secondary schools and colleges; (c) Teachers of national, secondary and vocational schools.

The services of a noted music teachers had, it was stated, been secured for a course in music approved by the Department of Education for national teachers.

To facilitate all concerned, inter- ing students were asked to make early application to the Secretary of the College, Sean O Criodain, O.S., Tobar Ri An Domhnaigh, Corcaigh.

ALTHY CHICKS