

10 names.
"Filling and clearing" is an expression in this locality, & is applied to showery weather, when sky clears for a while and then "fills up" again as clouds come on and rain falls.

"Ag fluichadh a's ag chearradh" is an expression that Mr. J. D. Sheahan N.T., Monaparrson, heard from an old woman of 90 years named Siobhán a' tSagairt of Ballingeary. It refers to expression "filling and clearing" & denotes showery weather.

"hill to one side like the town of Fernay," is another expression of this locality.

Neadh an Fíolair, is the full name for Nadd, a place near Banteer, Co. Cork. says Mrs. H. O' Sullivan, of Dromahane, Mallow, Co. Cork, aged 90 years. Neadh an Fíolair, means the egg's nest.

"Filling and Clearing" is an expression in this locality, and is applied to showery weather, when sky clears for a while and then "fills up" again as clouds come on and rain falls.

"Ag Fluichadh a's ag Chearradh is an expression that Mr. J. D. Sheahan N.T., Monaparrson, heard from an old woman of 90 years named Siobhán a' tSagairt of Ballingeary. It refers to the expression "filling and clearing" and denotes showery weather.